local, Helena

MISSOULA--

Harriett Meloy of Helena is the recipient of the Cliff Worthen Award, presented by the University of Montana chapter of Phi Delta Kappa.

The award is made annually to a citizen of Montana who has made significant contributions to education in the state of Montana.

Meloy, former head librarian of the Montana Historical Society, is a member of the State Board of Public Education and is co-chairperson of the Committee for the Continuation of the Six-Mill Levy.

Among her other affiliations and activities are memberships in the American Association of University Women, National Association of State Boards of Education, Helena Historic Preservation Committee and the Montana and Pacific Northwest Library Association.

The award was presented by Wayne Buchanan, Director of Special Services for the Montana School Boards Association, at the May meeting of the chapter at the Club Chateau in Missoula. Phi Delta Kappa is a professional organization in education.
